- Patrick Hunter summarized the Investigative Workload & Classification Report: As of April 30, 2013 there were 97 open investigations; 12 new complaints were received and 13 cases were closed.
- Board Member Comments
- George DeLaBarre: Inquired about current Board member vacancies. Executive Officer, Patrick Hunter stated CLERB has one vacancy for District 1. Sheryl Bennett-District 5 & Louis Wolfsheimer-District 4, term out in June 2013. Patrick Hunter is currently working with the Board of Supervisors offices for replacement candidates.
 - Inquired about anticipated timeframe/target date for CLERB Rule Revisions. Patrick Hunter stated a month or so as he needs to work with staff prior to the subcommittee.
 - Commented as to staff's progress for the 2011 & 2012 Annual Reports.
 - The CLERB Executive Officer's Performance Evaluation will be calendared for the July agenda. Board Members are to provide input to Board Chair, George DeLaBarre.
 - Louis Wolfsheimer: Commented on City Beat articles and PBS round table discussion. Suggested that Executive Officer define the Board's role in a public statement. Patrick Hunter will meet with the Board Chair to explore options. Since this item was not on the agenda, no immediate action can be taken, so comments were noted. George DeLaBarre concurred with Louis Wolfsheimer and requested the item be placed on the July agenda.
 - Riley Gordon: Inquired about status of an early warning system/committee. Patrick Hunter said it is being revisited as part of the Rules and Regulations revision and will be presented to the subcommittee. George DeLaBarre remarked that the Rules and Regulations take priority over the Early Warning system.
